

Business

Even easier to spot at uni

Similarity: 18%

Processed on: 29-02-09 12:18 AM GMT
ID: 200570
Word Count: 204
Submitted: 1

Class: Professional Studies 1 - ED961_309_SEM1
Assignment: Assessment 3
Paper ID: 214533

12 1% match (student papers from 02/11/08)
13 1% match (student papers from 17/02/08)
14 1% match (student papers from 25/11/07)
15 1% match (Internet from 15/04/07)
16 1% match (student papers from 29/02/08)
17 1% match (publications)
18 1% match (student papers from 16/01/08)

A Copied assignment...

Similarity: 97%

Processed on: 17-02-09 1:11 PM GMT
ID: 3150752
Word Count: 389
Submitted: 1

Class: Professional Studies 1 - ED961_309_SEM1
Assignment: Assessment 3
Paper ID: 214533

12 1% match (student papers from 02/11/08)
13 1% match (student papers from 17/02/08)
14 1% match (student papers from 25/11/07)
15 1% match (Internet from 15/04/07)
16 1% match (student papers from 29/02/08)
17 1% match (publications)
18 1% match (student papers from 16/01/08)

The Consequences...

- UCAS will inform the university and you are unlikely to go where you want to
- In university you will fail an entire module
- You could be expelled from the university
- It will go on your permanent record

What you can do...

1. When in doubt, cite sources
2. Make it clear WHO said WHAT
3. Know how to paraphrase
4. Evaluate your sources

Adapted from: http://www.plagiarism.org/learning_center/preventing_writing.html

What you can do...

Simple way to acknowledge your sources:

Source: www.bbc.co.uk/news/

Adapted from: www.bbc.co.uk/news/

Review

- You can get credit for finding good sources
- Plagiarism is easy to spot
- Serious consequences
- Easy to avoid by using citation

More info at:
<http://www.plagiarism.org/>

Get more great resources at: <http://www.jamesabela.co.uk/>